User goes to application home view User is logged in User is not logged in User is a member and logs in on the provided User views general movie collection User is not a member log-in screen User clicks on User clicks on User clicks option to go to Did not enter correct info Entered correct info Searches for film that is their username in registration page movie in already visible nav bar (w/o having to search bar Receives alert that user search/filter) information is invalid with Fill out form and clicks User taken to request to re-enter button to register user profile Clicks button Others movies are User clicks for more info Entered valid registration filtered Did not enter valid info Clicks button to button to delete about movie info out, leaving the update profile their account movie that was searched for Receives alert that Fills out form with Receives Taken to updated info and clicks warning that this information is invalid with Receives movie's info page request to re-enter button to submit cannot be undone notification that their account has been Clicks link for updated and is Clicks to proceed with Click's link for Clicks cancel directed back movie's Clicks button to deregistering movies genre Clicks button to to the profile button delete movie director add movie to from favorites favorites Receives notification that account has been cancelled Dialog box is User receives User receives closed Taken to Taken to notification that notification that genre info director info movie has movie has been page page been added to deleted from their Taken back to registration their favorites favorites page